SOUL/BLUES

SEVEN-TIME BLUES MUSIC AWARD NOMINEE

TAD ROBINSON IS THE MODERN VOICE OF SOUL BLUES.

From his Manhattan roots and his Indiana and Chicago musical upbringing, Tad has caught the attention of the music world with his seven Blues Music Award nominations (the Grammys of blues music) and his many recordings, including the song “Rained All Night” which was nominated for Blues Song of the Year at the 2011 Blues Music Awards. He’s a veteran of countless national and international tours, including many of the most important international blues festivals. With harmonica chops schooled by Big and Little Walter, Sonny Boy I and II, Junior Wells, James Cotton, among many, and vocals that compare to Otis Redding, Syl Johnson, Al Green, Teddy Pendergrass, Tad ranks as one of the most unique and talented members of the international blues and soul communities.

“Robinson places near the top of the list of the finest living singers of soul blues.” – DOWNBEAT MAGAZINE

“A velvet voiced collection of cool.” – METROMIX INDY

“Robinson sings with a range and smoothness of delivery that are exquisitely evocative.” – MOJO MAGAZINE
